HISTORIC DISTRICT COMMISSION

The Historic District Commission is looking for members interested in preserving the town's historic property. Please call 428-3221 ext. 1 for additional information.

MUSIC ON MAIN STREET EVENTS

The John Stark chapter of Tri-M Music Honor Society will have a booth at Music on Main Street selling "decorate-your-own" cupcakes as well as discounted ticket packs to all John Stark performing arts events. They will also have a 15 minute mini-showcase performance by Tri-M members at the bandstand.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT: Hurricane Relief

Music on Main Street and S.H.O.T. will be a donation drop-off point for local efforts to aide hurricane victims.

Please help us get the word out, we will have an empty pick-up truck parked near our booth and the goal is to see it totally loaded by the end of the day.

Suggested Items: Cleaning supplies such as Clorox and mold removal products, Pine Sol, etc.; spray bottles; sponges; rags; paper towels; rubber gloves and work gloves; heavy black garbage bags; N-95 rated particulate masks; tarps, rolls of at 1:00 pm.

The Nicaraguan group, Daughters of the Corn, will be playing at Music on Main Street. They are in NH for three days of work at John Stark, Henniker Community and Weare Middle Schools. Their trip was sponsored in part by the JSRHS Spanish Honor Society. The Nicaraguan organization Compas de Nicaragua, that supports Daughter of the Corn, helps about 40 women in Nicaragua who organize health and education projects in the impoverished settlement of La Primavera in Managua and a farmer’s coop in La Paz, Carazo who carry out sustainable living projects.

Craney Hill Fire Tower will be open to the public once again this Fall. The Craney Hill Fire Tower Association has been opening and restoring the historic tower since 1997 when they rescued it from a proposal to tear it down and put a cell tower in its place.

The Craney Hill Fire Tower is owned by the Town of Henniker and managed and restored by volunteers and generous private donations. The tower was originally a state run forest fire lookout and used actively from 1938 to 1980 when it was given to the Town of Henniker.

HENNIKER CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

October 7th

Delfeayo Marsalis will again breeze into town, bringing a slice of New Orleans with him. The potluck supper is being held at the Henniker Grange Hall at 5:30, followed by Delfeayo in concert at the sanctuary at 7:00pm.

Delfeayo’s Uptown Music Theatre began as a response to the devastation of Hurricane Katrina on August 29, 2005. The Theatre’s purpose is to promote community through multidisciplinary arts education rooted in jazz. Since its inception, the youth of UMT have danced, played and sang their way through competitions across the country. Between 2011 and 2015 they swept the awards at the Annual Junior Theatre Festival all four years. Always uplifting and family-oriented, Delfeayo brings that spirit with him on his visits to Henniker.

ACOUSTIC CAFE
Friday, October 13th
7:00 - 9:00pm
John Stark High School
The John Stark Teachers' Association is hosting its annual Acoustic Cafe featuring performances by students, teachers, and staff!
Tickets are $10 at the door. All proceeds are used for scholarships for JS students pursuing a career in education.
Refreshments will be served. Come and enjoy this night of fun-filled music, poetry, comedy, and drama--the acts are varied and certain to put a smile on your face all while funding college scholarships.
The event is open to all!

STUDENT TEACHERS
Two student teachers at Center Woods Elementary School this fall knew their way around SAU 24 schools before their first day. Alex Story and Kelsi Hunt, student teachers enrolled in the Education Track at New England College, both completed their K-12 education in SAU 24 schools. Alex attended grades K-8 at the Henniker Community School and Kelsi was a student at both Center Woods Elementary and Weare Middle. Once completing 8th grade, both women headed to John Stark Regional High School, graduating in 2014.

2018 HENNIKER ROTARY RAFFLE TICKETS
NOW ON SALE
If it's late September, it's time for the annual Rotary Monthly Raffle - where for $10 you get 12 chances to win $100. Each month a winner is drawn then the card goes back into the fishbowl and can get selected again-so you have multiple chances to win. Tickets for the 2018 raffle will be on sale beginning September 30 at Music on Main Street at the Rotary booth and at a range of community activities between now and the holidays, including the Congregational Church Holiday Fair, Saturday, December 9th.
Buy 5 raffle tickets for $40 and have 60 chances to win the monthly drawing. Catch up with your favorite Henniker Rotarian and buy your tickets from them or at one of the upcoming community events.
This year, in addition to the raffle tickets, Rotarians will once again have Holiday Bird Seed Wreaths for sale. The wreaths are a two-fer; a great and different gift for a friend, beautifully packaged, and a special holiday treat for the birds. This year, in addition to Rotarians selling the wreaths at community events, they will be available at Stonefall Gardens which will have Christmas hours beginning in November featuring lots of holiday plants and decorations. The wreaths are a great bargain at only $15.00.
Funds raised from the raffle and wreath sales go right back into the community supporting local projects like the Senior luncheon
